GENERAL ORDER No. 1

TO THE PEOPLE OF WISCONSIN.

The best bought, best selected, best assorted and most extensive stock of DRY GOODS
ever offered in Janesville, is now open to PUBLIC INSPECTION
at the Great Mart of McKey & Bro.

WE have taken advantage of the recent unparalleled fall in the price of gold, E. McKey having resided almost exclusively in New York for the past three months, was on hand and of first class importers, who, under the influence of the panic, Sacrificed Many Desirable Goods
BOUGHT LARGELY
at 60 cents on the dollar of the prices ruling one week previous. The public is aware that the cause of the great advance in the price of Imported Goods was the enormous premium on gold, to buy exchange and pay duties; that having declined from 74 to 35 per cent, or about 60 per cent on former rates, and we having been on the spot when it took place, went in for Piles of Goods,
the purchase of one of which would Gobble up the entire resources of many of the so-called Merchants who Blow, Hurrah and Clap their hands before the public.
But we believe that sensation advertisements are played out, and that it is scarcely necessary to inform the public that those who are compelled to buy goods in small lot, and live as it were from hand to mouth cannot pretend to COMPETE WITH US!
in proof of which we offer the following:
200 ps full yd wide New York F Sheetings, 30c per yd
200 ps Portsmouth unbleached factory,.........20c "
500 ps Spring DeLaines,..............................25c "
500 ps new Spring DeLaines..........................31¼c "
300 Balmoral Skirts, 4 yds wide, 1¼ yds long. $2,50.
190 ps A T Stewart fine print'd French Jaconets, 31¼c"
200 Ps Fine French Organdies at 25c per yd which were bought under peculiar circumstances, the same quality having been sold at wholesale last week in New York at 44c per yard. None of the above will be sold to neighboring speculators; our legitimate trade alone supplied.
Our purchases of nearly a year ago were so enormous that we still HAVE MANY PACKAGES
of heavy and fine bleached and unbleached Sheetings and Shirtings, Merrimac, Sprague and other Prints, Shirtings, Stripes, Tickings, Denims, Cottonades for Summer wear, &c., &c., all of which we will now open and dispose of at prices which will make the small fry stand aside, and still further add to the Brilliant and Triumphant success which has crowned our efforts for the last fourteen years.
We shall still sell our justly celebrated and superior
HOOP SKIRTS
at old prices. Our stock of Hosiery, Gloves & Embroideries will be found the largest and most comprehensive in the state. Ladies will here find a full line of hand made Tatting, all widths, Collerette a La Eugenie, Bon aure Imperatrice, Linen Collars, plain and with ruffled, embroidered, colored and mourning trimming.
IN CLOAKINGS AND SACKINGS
We shall exhibit 100 pieces Middlesex and Washington all wool, most desirable shades, plain and mixed.
Our stock of all wool, silk warp and domett
FLANNELS
for spring and summer wear is full and well assorted.
SHAWLS! SHAWLS!
We have on the road and will shortly receive Five Hundred of the most fashionable for spring wear.
BLACK SILKS,
New Broom Black Silks, (to be had only of us,) also English Crown, Sublime and Bischoff do do.
We close out from one of the heaviest importers in New York, 600 pieces heavy GERMAN REPPS,
worth 50c per yard, which to those who buy to keep over, or for immediate wear, we offer as a drive at 25c per yard.
In Our Millinery Department will be found everything desirable, choice and new, in Bonnets and Hats of the fashionable Eugenie, Alexandrina and Alboni styles; 1200 dozen best made of white and colored, all sizes. Ruches, black, white and magpie; new style frames; crown lining; cape lace; fine French flowers, rose buds, &c., &c. The usual liberal inducements to the trade.
SHAKER HOODS,
OUR CLOTHING STORE is heavily stocked with all the new and desirable styles of GENT'S GARMENTS.
We have also a well selected line of Harris, Woodstock and other well known brands of Fancy Cassimeres, which if desired, we shall MAKE UP TO ORDER
in the first style of fashion.
In conclusion, we cordially invite the public, for its own satisfaction, to examine every stock in the city before looking at ours. But we would also caution every purchaser not to invest one dime in Dry Goods before calling at the GREAT MART,
SIGN OF THE GOLDEN SHEEP,
where they can obtain Twenty-Five per Cent More for their money than at any other store.

Chinese Customs.

FUNERAL FEASTS.—One day, hearing this noise, I asked a mandarin who was with me what it meant? "It means," said he, "that they are endeavoring to induce a soul, which is about to quit this world, to delay its departure," and, added he, "the plan is frequently successful." On the music soon after ceasing, my companion said that the sick man had just "saluted the age." This expression, which is in general use in China, means that the individual has passed from life to death. The Chinese have a great dislike to make use of the word death. They also say he has taken the road to heaven, he has vanished, and other such phrases. Some days after, seeing a number of people assembled, my mandarin informed me that they had collected together for the funeral ceremony of an individual who had "vanished," and I expressed a wish to be present at a spectacle which was new to me. He hesitated at first, but at length consented, telling me, however, that I must promise to be discreet, and imitate him in all he did. The promise was given, and we were soon at the residence of the deceased person. The house of very rich Chinese is ornamented with masts surrounded with streamers, and with a large placard, on which is written the names and titles of the master. That of the deceased was turned upside down. My mandarin entered, and I followed him. The court yard was full of carriages and the vestibule of friends, who were making the most internal noise, laughing, shouting, and singing. I whispered to my companion that we must have mistaken the house, and that it was a marriage and not a funeral that we were about to be present at. He told me to be quiet, as it was all right. The servants soon afterwards made their appearance, and served a copious repast. I partook of it like the others. I had promished my mandarin to follow his example in everything, and he used his jaws like a man who had a most capacious stomach at his command.

The interment of a Chinese who had "saluted the age," so apropos to furnish me with a good repast, when I was hungry, rather amused me. I was devouring everything that came within my reach, when, suddenly, every one stopped eating and began sobbing most violently. I at first thought this the signal for a howl in honor of the dead, as we are told takes place in Ireland sometimes, and I turned my head to my cicerone in order that I might imitate him; he was weeping. I was ready to burst out laughing, which my mandarin observing, whispered in my ear, "Cry, if you do not wish to be insulted." I endeavored to do so, but I merely made myself ridiculous. In Europe I should have been shown to the door, for I certainly looked like a donkey braying. "Bravo!" whispered the mandarin, "bravo! but do not hurt yourself, it is all habit." After this scene had lasted fo. five minutes, every one recommenced an attack on the refreshments. The moment approached for removing the body, but, unfortunately, we could not remain any longer. While returning to our junk, which was about to depart, the mandarin gave me some details about funeral ceremonies. He told me that in China the greatest respect is shown to the dead, and the funerals are most splendid. Some families almost ruin themselves for that purpose. A Chinese, during his whole lifetime, occupies himself with the thought of where his coffin shall be placed, of what wood it shall be made, and how the inside of it shall be lined. In a word, they engage themselves with how they shall be buried, as, with us, people think of how they shall make their wills and bequeath their property. Many rich persons carry their coffins with them when traveling, and in all the towns the coffin-makers have a profitable business. In some families the coffins of their ancestors are deposited in a room especially appropriated for the purpose, as in Europe there are galleries of portraits or of pictures.

The Traitors Are Drilling.

We have a note from Tuscola, in Douglas county, on the line of the Illinois Central Railroad, saying that the copperheads of that neighborhood met about ten miles from the village, on Saturday, for the purpose of exercise and drill. They numbered two hundred or more, and their evolutions were publicly conducted. They were well armed, and did not care to conceal that their intentions are to put themselves in readiness to resist the government and to take the lives of those who uphold and defend it. We believe our correspondent to be reliable; and if he is not mistaken, it may be well for the authorities of the land, civil or military, to inquire into the meaning of assemblages of this sort, and to bring a few of the leaders of the incipient revolt to the punishment that they have earned.

The intention of a few madmen in Illinois to push the state into collision with the federal government, and to make our fair fields the scene of bloody strife, is too plain to be mistaken; and we are sorry to say that their success in their nefarious work is a complete justification of the confidence with which they undertook it. The rank and file are, within certain limitations, ready for the fray. The poison that journals like the organ of Jeff Davis in this city has instilled into the public mind, has done its work.

Again we appeal to the moderate men of all parties to know if they also are ready? We mean the men of substance, the men of character, the men who love peace and court anything rather than a remorseless revolutionary struggle such as the copperheads would inaugurate,—are they ready for the burnings and the bloodshed that a few nameless adventurers and vagabonds, who have everything to gain and nothing to lose by the violent upheaval of society, are striving to make as common here as way-side assassination is in Missouri? We tell them that the danger is imminent, and that they must begin now to avert it!—Chicago Tribune.

HELP FROM NEW JERSEY.—The Trenton (N. J.) Gazette, of Thursday morning, says: "Up to yesterday afternoon about 2,200 organized volunteers had tendered their services to the governor, to march to Pennsylvania, under the proclamation issued on Tuesday last. Other companies in all parts of the state are rapidly filling up."

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE.
OVER THE POST OFFICE.
THERE is nothing so much sought for by the public as a practical Sewing Machine, one that is Simple, Strong & Reliable.
One that will run for years without the annoyance of being out of repair; one that is noiseless and swift in motion; also that makes the stitch as you want it, alike on both sides of the fabric; such are the machines of the
FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE COMPANY.
Who take pleasure in placing their Machines before the public, and unhesitatingly say they are the best in the world, and openly and publicly challenge machines of any and all manufactures to do as large a range of work as can easily be done on one of these machines. They make FOUR DIFFERENT STITCHES,
and have all the advantage of a reversible feed motion, which carries the work either way, which, together with making all the four stitches, can be done whilst the machine is in motion; the saving of time in stopping to change the length of stitch, is obviated by this machine.
Any correspondence regarding our Machines will be promptly answered. Enclose a Letter Stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail.

Gens. Fremont and Sigel.

The following correspondence is published in the New York Tribune:

NEW YORK, June 16, 1863.

To the President of the United States:

In the present emergency will you allow Major Gens. Fremont and Sigel to issue a call for volunteers to march at once to the defense of Pennsylvania and the nation.

FREDERICK KAPP,
SIGISMUND KAUFMANN,
CHARLES KESSMAN.

ANSWER.

WASHINGTON, June 16, 1863.

To Frederick Kapp and others:

The governor of New York proposes to send us troops, and if he wishes the assistance of Gen. Fremont and Gen. Sigel, one or both, he can have it. If he does not wish them, it would but breed confusion for us to set them at work independent of him. A. LINCOLN.

We regret that the President has thought fit to make this reply to a very reasonable and timely request. Certainly, when the government wants men so much as to offer to credit certain states in the forthcoming draft for all the six months men they may now raise, and to telegraph to the distant states of Wisconsin and Minnesota for help, it cannot properly refuse to permit commanders now out of employment to exert their influence in procuring volunteers to repel the very pressing danger now menacing the capital of the country. It does not matter whether these generals are now out of service at their own request or not; if they are worth keeping under pay they should be employed.

The President's reference to the state of New York is inappropriate. The request did not ask that the call for volunteers should be confined to the state of New York. Surely the national government can organize a volunteer force from all parts of the country in any state without "breeding confusion." If the governor of New York objects to it, send these generals west; we will warrant it will not confuse any loyal western governor to see the people rallying to the defence of the country under any particular general.

The idea that the employment of Gens. Fremont and Sigel should depend upon the wish of Gov. Seymour is not creditable to the President's sincerity. He knew that Gov. Seymour would be the last man to request aid from them, so strong are his political antipathies.

It has been said that Gen. Halleck is the cause of the persistant refusal of the government to employ these generals. In this case, it is evident the president is alone responsible, and it is possible that others have all along been blamed for his acts. Since we read the above letter we are inclined to believe that Gen. Halleck should be relieved of some portion of responsibility for the singular obstinacy in this particular on the part of the military authorities at Washington.

Now that it is more and more apparent that the rebels mean to march on Baltimore and attack Washington in the rear, while they keep up their cavalry raids for supplies and to distract attention, the government will need the aid of all the forces it can by any means procure; and we hope this strange refusal to set generals at work who can raise more men than any other two in the nation, will be reconsidered, even at the risk of confusing Gov. Seymour.

Troubles in Dodge County.

Major Clowney, of the 30th regiment, commands the two companies sent to Dodge county, in consequence of two enrolling officers having been fired upon in the eastern part of that county. He has had some experience in preserving order in Washington county, and will probably succeed in his present mission.

It appears that Sat. Clark, the great copperhead of that region, became alarmed in consequence of the disposition manifested by the people there to put his teachings in practice in opposing the government in what he terms the wicked war now being waged against the south, and was disposed to prevent further outbreaks.

The State Journal learns that on Friday last, Senator Clark had an interview with the provost marshal general, Col. Lovell, and stated that on the following day there would be a meeting of the leading democrats from the several towns of the district at Horicon, to see what course they would pursue. Mr. C. had strong hopes of persuading them to respect the laws, and permit the enrollment to go on without further interruption. He was to communicate the result of the meeting to Col. Lovell, or Gen. Smith, at Milwaukee, and if favorable no troops were to be sent. If the temper of the meeting was violent, then it was understood that a detachment of troops would be sent forward at once to enforce the authority of the laws.

Last evening a dispatch came from Gen. Smith, ordering the companies above mentioned to proceed at once to Hartford, from which the inference is that Clark was unable to control the meeting at Horicon, and that it resolved upon the secession of the 33d senatorial district from the jurisdiction of the federal government.

From the Louisville Journal, June 20th.

Rebel Invasion of Indiana.

One of the most daring and hazardous raids ever attempted, has taken place in Indiana. Dr. Fry, commanding the post at New Albany, informs us that on Tuesday night or Wednesday morning last, two hundred rebels crossed the Ohio at Flint Rock, near Leavenworth, and struck out for the interior of Indiana. The river at that point is fordable, which greatly facilitated their designs. They went to Leavenworth, robbing the stores and citizens of money, horses, and wearing apparel, and whatever else they needed. They proceeded with all the swiftness possible to Corydon, where they repeated the same operations as at Leavenworth. From Corydon couriers were dispatched to the commandant at New Albany, and to other places where home guards or soldiers were stationed, and soon the whole country was in a blaze of excitement and alarm. The home guards at Mitchell were instantly dispatched to meet the marauding invaders, who made their next appearance at Paoli, in Orange county, where the Mitchell Home Guards, numbering sixty, met and gave them battle. This was Thursday afternoon some time—our informant did not exactly state. The Indianians made a stubborn resistance, but after the loss of twenty captured and several wounded, they were compelled to yield to superior numbers. The rebel loss is unknown, but must have been considerable, as the Hoosiers fought like tigers. The captured were paroled, and the guerrillas robbed the town and took everything they could use to advantage to themselves, or that would assist them in their hellish work. As soon as Dr. Fry received intelligence of the fight and the sacking of Paoli, which was last night, he mustered all the soldiers that were able to bear arms and sent them early this morning to Salem, in Washington county, to intercept, if possible, the further advance of the rebel robbers.

The home guards of New Albany assembled, and they left this morning on the train with the soldiers, making a force of about four hundred and twenty. Their destination was Salem, where they arrived to-day at ten o'clock. Last night the guerrillas were reported within six miles of Salem, and it was thought they would reach there some time in the night. A small force had assembled to meet them, but not much could be expected from them, as they are undisciplined, and have to contend against veteran troops, and cavalry at that. It is almost certain that the forces from New Albany reached Salem in time to same the place and totally defeat the robbers. There is scarcely any doubt as to the issue, if a fight takes places; our forces are strong enough to defeat and disperse the invaders. A battle, ere this, has probably been fought, and we wait, with painful anxiety, the particulars and the result, although we are confident that the rebels will be defeated.

The invading cavalry consists of a part of the 4th Kentucky rebel regiment, and their design is to get all the horses, money and goods they can take away with them, destroying the railroad bridges across the roads running to this point to prevent the further transmission of stores for the present, destroy all the government property they can find, and then make good their escape to Dixie. These facts were learned from a deserter, and are undoubtedly true. No raid attempted during the war has been so full of daring and danger as this one, and is made very likely in concert with other movements of greater moment.

Dr. Fry, at New Albany, has acted promptly and wisely in this matter, and deserves the approval of his superiors and loyal men everywhere. He thinks that the whole gang will be captured or killed before they can get out of Indiana. We wait with impatience further developments relative to this bold invasion.

LATER.

At last accounts the rebels were retreating on Salem, in Washington, followed by a force of Home Guards. They met and fought them near Orleans, Orange county, in which engagement the Union forces lost two men killed and several wounded, but made it so hot for the guerrillas that they thought best to retreat, and give up the idea of a further advance. They are reported one hundred and fifty strong, and under the leadership of the notorious guerrilla Hines, who visited Elizabethtown, in this state, a week since. How they have eluded the grasp of the Union soldiery who have been ever since in pursuit of them is a mystery to us.

They have committed some of the most atrocious barbarities in Indiana that the mind could conceive of. They captured and killed a private and unoffending citizen named Crist, near Paoli, for no cause in the world, except that he refused to give them his purse and horse. A man named Braxton, an old gentleman, was murdered in a similar manner, and for such like alleged offense, and still another had his brains mercilessly knocked out, because he did not wish to give up his horse to these fiend robbers.

Major Woodbury came from Leavenworth with a small force, in pursuit of Hines, and was only two hours behind him when he left Paoli.

Vallene, a village in Orange county, is reported burned. The citizens refused to permit the thieving scoundrels to take whatever they wanted, without resistance, and for that they were compelled to see their houses laid in ruins.

The expedition which left New Albany yesterday morning is in command of Col. Meriweather, of an Indiana regiment of volunteers, and was joined last night by Col. McGinniss, who had a small force under him. It is to be hoped that these thieves will be caught and executed as murderers and common pirates. War has enough of horror and bloodshed without the heartless brutality which has characterized the march of these men, and we believe that a swift and terrible retribution is close at hand. It is hardly possible for them to escape out of the state, and, if caught, the Hoosier blood is too much up to spare the life of a single one of them.

Correspondence of the New York Herald.

The Great Rebel Invasion.

BALTIMORE, June 17, 1863.

The purpose of Gen. Lee is now more clearly developed than it was two days ago, or even twenty-four hours ago, as will be seen from the following facts, which I have learned to-day. The whole story may be summed up in a word—the glittering prize upon which the eye of the rebel general is fixed is Washington. The possession of the national capitol is the immediate object which he proposes to gain. The movement into Pennsylvania by way of Winchester and Martinsburg; the demonstration towards Harrisburg, and the investment of Harper's Ferry, are all feints, intended to divert the attention of the administration, and, if possible, portion of the Union troops, also, away from Washington.

The rebel forces now investing Harper's Ferry—the same who defeated Milroy at Winchester, Gen. Tyler at Martinsburg, and a part of whom are now playing the mischief in the rich Cumberland valley, near Harrisburg, in Pennsylvania—are not only not commanded by Gen. Ewell, but they are not even chiefly from Gen. Ewell's corps. They are among them three squadrons of Ashby's cavalry, about eighteen hundred or two thousand sabres in all, and eight pieces of light field artillery. That is all there is from Ewell's corps. The remainder of the force is precisely the same that played such havoc and caused such consternation along the western end of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, and in the western part of Pennsylvania, six or seven weeks ago—namely, the mounted and organized guerrillas under Gen. Jones, Gen. Jenkins, and Col. Imboden. They number 9,000 men, but not a soul more. There are besides two regiments of infantry, numbering in the aggregate 1,200 or 1,500 men. Thus the whole force numbers 12,500 men at the outside. I have these facts from the best authority, and I put the statement on record now, and the events of the next week will prove its correctness.

Such is the beggarly force that is inspiring all this terror in Pennsylvania.

It may be, if Col. Imboden finds out how badly scared the people in Harrisburg are, that he will concentrate all his cavalry, ford the Susquehanna above the city, and ride through it as a mere matter of bravado. A body of 11,000 cavalry—and such cavalry as that under Jones, Flournoy, and Imboden—would not think such an undertaking beyond their power.

But all this is mere boy-play to what Gen. Lee is doing. Yesterday he was at Thoroughfare Gap with his whole army, forty miles west of Washington. There will be no fight on the old battle field of Bull Run.

May I ask you now to republish the following brief extract from my letter of May 22d, as it referred to the very operation in which Gen. Lee is now engaged:

"Gen. Lee will very soon assume the offensive and move northwards, either to attack Washington or invade Pennsylvania. (He is doing so now, only three weeks after this was published.) He had less than 75,000 troops when he invaded Pennsylvania last September. He will move now with 150,000. It is supposed to be his intention to move his whole army rapidly towards Centreville, and to move thence either directly on the works at Arlington Heights, by way of Fairfax, or else to move to Matildaville, by way of Vienna; to cross the Potomac at Coon's Ford, twelve miles above Washington: then to move directly east to Bladensburg, tear up the railroad there, so as to cut off all communication with the north and east, and then to attack Washinton from that direction; and that by the Fourth of July, the rebel flag will float over the capitol. Gen. Lee believes that the moment he threatens Washington seriously, Gen. Hooker will hasten to defend that city."

I have nothing to add to this programme. It is the one which Gen. Lee has marked out for himself, and which he is now pursuring. To defeat it will require all the energy and all the strength at the command of the administration.

If Gen. Hooker had "watched the enemy" properly, Gen. Lee would never have got north of the Rappahannock.

There are indications to-day of an intention on the part of Imboden and Jones to diverge to the right at Chambersburg and strike for York, on the Northern Central railroad, between this city and Harrisburg. It is believed that the work assigned is to cut and destroy as much as possible of two important railroads besides the Baltimore and Ohio—namely, the one just mentioned and the Pennsylvania Central road.

My letter of May 31 stated: "But if Hooker does not seize this golden opportunity it will soon pass away. The middle of June will see both Beauregard's and Lee's troops back again in the east, and then, indeed, the desperate aggressive movement of Gen. Lee towards the north will take place." That time has now come. Richmond is no longer defenceless. I learn from the best authority that there are troops enough there to laugh a siege to scorn.

ON THE MARCH, June 18.—SCOUTS.—Scouts from the moutain passes of the Blue Ridge bring in but little interesting news. In fact, you are probably better posted in regard to the rebel movements from the front than you can be from the rear, and the movements of our own army are necessarily not permitted to be published.

THE REBEL ADVANCE AND STRENGTH.—It seems to be satisfactorily determined that the rebel army that moved up the Shenandoah Valley at first, and which is now despoiling Southern Pennsylvania, is but the advance of the great army of invasion the rebels have so quietly created. It consists of but two corps, those of Longstreet and Ewell, Lee accompanying it in person. These corps are estimated to number 30,000 men each, making the total force now in the upper valley, in Maryland and Southern Pennsylvania, 60,000 men. D. H. Hill is now following, his corps having passed the vicinity of Thoroughfare Gap on Tuesday. He has 30,000 more. These, with Stuart's cavalry, make a total effective force of 100,000 men now definitely known to be engaged in the invasion. Whether there are more to follow or not I cannot say.

MORE IN RESERVE.—They have more troops in reserve, as we have fully ascertained. Yesterday they appeared in force, with infantry, artillery and cavalry, at Beverly Ford, as if to assure us that they have not withdrawn all their forces from the south side of the Rappahannock. But they have not ventured to make any demonstration against the army of the Potomac, the only enemies Hooker having found to battle with being heat, dust and the lack of water.

THE HORRORS OF THE MARCH.—But these enemies have been terribly severe in their assaults. This army, in the march of Monday, suffered untold miseries. The heat was oppressive in the extreme, with scarcely a breath of air stirring. The roads were ankle deep with dust; and to cap the climax the streams and springs along the way were all dry. The whole country was filled with stragglers. Men could not be kept in the ranks. Every piece of woods was filled with them, and no coaxing or threatening could prevail on them to move. The ambulances were crowded with those who had completely given out. I presume there were as many as a thousand cases of coup de soliel, of which at least a hundred were instantly fatal. The open country was crowded with these poor fellows, dropping down by the roadside in all directions.

PLENTY OF WATER NOW—ALL REFRESHED.—But we have reached the end of the hasty march at last, and have had one day's rest, with plenty of water, with which the whole army has quenched its thirst, and in which we have all had a good bathe. The result is apparent on all hands. Everybody is refreshed and in better spirits. A little moderation of the heat has also contributed to keep the army in better trim, and I think I may now say we are in condition to resume active operations.

RAIN WANTED.—Could we have a good soaking rain—a storm of forty-eight hours duration—its benefits would be incalculable. Without it I fear for this army. The region of its operations has always been noted as the dryest part of the state. It is now unusually dry. Water, water, water, is the cry on every hand. With water we may have hope yet of making a glorious campaign.

A LATE CHIEF OF FIRE DEPARTMENT ARRESTED FOR INCENDIARISM.—Jos. Strickland was arrested at Indianapolis, June 16th, for setting fire to the Dayton Journal office. After his arrest he confessed his guilt, and wept bitterly. He was sent to Dayton.—Cincinnati Gazette.

Last Night's Report.

HARRISBURG, June 23.

The rebels occupied Chambersburg this morning. Our cavalry pickets are now five miles this side of that place. The troops under Gen. Knipe, at Chambersburg, have safely fallen back to the main body. The authorities believe the rebels to be in considerable force at Chambersburg.

CAIRO, June 23.

Special to the Chicago Journal.—By the arrival of a steamer we have news from the army investing Vicksburg to the morning of the 19th. The siege was progressing just as it has been for several weeks.

I asked an officer when he thought Vicksburg would surrender. He replied: "It may surrender in an hour and it may not in two weeks." That is all that can be gathered from those just off the field.

Our scouting parties through the country back of Vicksburg sometimes find small bodies of rebels, who generally get out of the way as fast as possible. On Thursday, a detachment of federal cavalry had a skirmish with rebel cavalry, five miles back of Haines' Bluff, but the results are not known, further than that we had captured about 20 prisoners.

The guerrillas along the river have been quiet for several days.

MEMPHIS, June 22, via Cairo, 23.

Special to Chicago Tribune.—The Silver Moon from Young's Point, on Saturday, the 20th, arrived in this city this morning. She brings nothing exciting from Vicksburg. The siege is still progressing.—Grant is perfectly secure in his position. Heavy batteries are being placed in position to rake the enemy's works.

The rebels still hold out in the hope that Johnston will come to their assistance with sufficient force to raise the siege. These hopes are certainly delusive. Johnston's numbers are not sufficiently strong to attack, nor can the rebels reinforce him soon enough to play any other than a secondary part.

Parties arriving in this city from the south represent the impossibility of rapid massing of rebel troops in the vicinity of Vicksburg.

WARRENTON, June 23.

The following are the official dispatches concerning the capture of the rebel ram Fingal. They are the more important as they relate to the first decisive contest between iron-clads:

ADMIRAL DUPONT'S DISPATCH.

FLAG SHIP WABASH, PORT ROYAL HARBOR, S. C., June 19, 1863.

SIR—I have the honor to inform the department that since writing my dispatch No. 516, I have read further details of the capture of the rebel Atlanta, sent by telegraph from Fort Pulaski.

The Atlanta, Capt. Wm. Webb, came down this morning via Wilmington river, to attack our vessels in the Warsaw Sound. She was accompanied by two wooden steamers, filled, it is said, with persons as spectators.

The Weehawken, Capt. John Rogers, at once engaged her, firing in all five shots, three of which took effect, penetrating her armor and killing and wounding the crews of two guns. Two or three pilots were also badly wounded, and her pilot house broken up; whereupon the vessel grounded, and immediately after surrendered.

The Weehawken was not hit.

The armament of the Atlanta was two eleven inch and two six-inch guns. She is but slightly injured.

I am very respectfully your obdt. servt.,
S. F. DUPONT,
Rear Admiral, Commanding South Carolina Blockading Squadron.

P. S.—The officers and crew of the Atlanta number one hundred and sixty-five persons.
S. F. DUPONT.

ADMIRAL LEE'S OFFICIAL DESPATCH.

NEWPORT NEWS, June 22.

To Hon. Giddeon Welles, secretary of the navy:

Admiral Dupont sent the Weehawken, Capt. Rogers, and the Nahant down to Warsaw Sound to look out for the Atlanta.

On June 17th, at 6 a. m., the Atlanta came down, accompanied by two gunboats.

The engagement was exclusively between the Weehawken and Atlanta. The latter mounted four Brooke rifles, two of seven-inch, on bow and stern pivots, and two of six-inch, one on each side. She could fight two of the former and one of the latter on a side.

Capt. Rodgers engaged her at close quarters. The first 15-inch shot by himself took off the top of the Atlanta's pilot house, and wounded two of her pilots.—Another 15-inch shot struck half way up her roof, which was iron-plated four inches thick, killing one and wounding seventeen men.

Eleven shots were fired in all—five by the Weehawken and six by the Atlanta. The latter ran aground and surrendered.

The fight was short and the victory signal. The Weehawken sustained no injury of any sort.

The Atlanta steers well, and made six knots in a head sea, going to Port Royal. She was completely provided with instruments and stores for a regular service.

She had a ram, saw and torpedo on her bow.

Ex-Lieut. W. A. Webb commanded her. Her compliment was 165 souls. Her wounded were left at Port Royal.

The Atlanta is said to have come down confident of capturing our Monitors easily, and her consorts, filled with spectators, were prepared to tow them into Savannah.

She will soon be ready for service under the flag of the Union.
S. P. LEE,
Acting Rear Admiral.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, June 23.

The Herald's Shippensburg special says rebel mounted infantry, cavalry and artillery entered that place this morning.

Times' Harrisburg special says 2,000 rebel cavalry advanced to Scotland, this afternoon. Capt. Boyd reports the rebels slowly and cautiously moving this way.

Special to Herald, to night, gives the following: The rebel Gen. Rhodes has 10,000 men and 30 pieces of artillery; 5,000 on the road to Downsville. Rebels commenced to move on Green Castle Monday.—Williamsport aqueduct destroyed by the rebels.

7 P. M.—It is reported that our forces are falling back on Carlisle. A battle can scarcely occur before to-morrow. The rebels charged our retreating force, chasing them to near Green village. Our forces still hold Carlisle and Shippensburg; also the heights near Gettysburg. Col. McClure reports the whole country bordering Chambersburg full of rebels.

HARRISBURG, June 23.

Nothing new from Shippensburg, the last telegraph station up the valley. A skirmish took place, to-day, ten miles from Gettysburg, between some of our troops and 80 rebels. The enemy retreated, losing one man.

WASHINGTON, June 23.

Herald's special.—The President has been engaged nearly all day with Gens. Hooker, Halleck and the secretary of war. Lee's force is evidently on a line along the Valley of Virginia, between Gordonsville and the upper Potomac.

A distinguished officer has exppressed the opinion that Lee intends to get the crops of the Valley and adjacent territory and obtain as many horses and cattle as possible before our army may be in a condition to again advance upon Richmond.

Special to the Times.—Admiral Dahlgreen, to day, was ordered by vote taken at the cabinet meeting, five to three, to Charleston to take command, substantially vacant by Admiral Foot's illness. Gen. Milroy, it is understood, has been relieved of his command.

Special to the Tribune.—The Richmond Enquirer of Saturday mentions the rumor that extra Billy Smith, just elected governor of Virginia, was killed in the battle of Winchester.

No news of importance that can be published from the front, but there is additional evidence that no rebel force worth speaking of is now on either side of Bull Run Mountains.

CHATHAM, MASS., June 23.

The fishing schooner Juliet, of Beverly, Capt. Mallom, arrived here this afternoon. She reports having spoken the schooner Florence, of Gloucester, this morning, about forty miles southeast of Chatham Lights. She had on board 150 prisoners, from the privateer bark Tacony, which took the Florence yesterday, and bonded her, and ordered her to New York, with the prisoners.

The Tacony took and burned six schooners yesterday, belonging to Gloucester, and three ships, the Saratoga, Paragua, and the other names not known.

NEW YORK, June 24.

The Petersburg Express, speaking of the Union gunboats now going up the Chickahominy, says: Whether this is to be a base of operations for a new move on Richmond, or merely a feint to reduce Lee's great army now marching upon Washington, we are unable to say.

The Tribune's letter from Pleasanton's headquarters of the 21st, says: Pleasanton learns satisfactorily that two corps of Ewell and Longstreet are near Winchester, accompanied by Lee, and a corps of A. P. Hill is now coming up the valley to join them.

United States Marshal Murray, of this city, received a letter from Daniel Sargent, United States consular agent at Mathewstown, Bahamas, dated June 6th, in which the following interesting postscript appears: By an arrival from St. Thomas, via Port au Prince, we just hear that Semmes and three of his officers have been transferred, at St. Thomas, on board a 16-gun frigate, just out from England; so look out now. The craft is named the Georgia, and has, it is said, two heavier guns than any on the Alabama.

The name of the steamer run ashore on Morris Island, Charleston harbor, recently, proves to be the Ruby.

Rebel reports state that all the contrabands on Jeff. and Joe Davis' plantations have been carried off by the Yankees; also the implements of husbandry and furniture have been destroyed.

A Washington letter of the 22d to the Tribune says the government is determined to offer a bounty of $300 to two years and nine months men who re-enlist for the war, who are to form a special corps, the government to be reimbursed, each man, for this $300, from the substitute fund to be raised under the draft.

A special to the World from Washington 23d, says: Intelligence from the front, to-night, contains nothing of interest. The artillery firing heard towards Aldie was the result of no engagement. Gen. Hooker returned to headquarters to-night.

It is said a court of inquiry will be had in Milroy's case just as soon as the exigencies of the service will permit.

BALTIMORE, June 24—12:20 a. m.

Information received at the headquarters of Gen. Schenck, to-night, and other sources, state that Ewell's forces, to the number of 35,000 to 40,000, are now in Maryland, in Bonesboro Valley. They have a large quantity of artillery, cavalry and infantry, and are building bridges across the canal, and actively engaged in foraging the country, collecting supplies, &c. They crossed at Antietam Ford and Shepardstown. Gen. Kelly telegraphs that Imboden's force, 3000 strong, is at Big Catalons.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, June 24.

Flour dull, unsettled and declining for western grades. Wheat favors buyers, moderate export demand, 1,16a1,34 Chicago spring; 1,25a1,39 Milwaukee club; 1,42 a1,47 red western. Corn 1c lower. Oats dull and lower, 74a78. Pork quiet. Lard steady, 9½a10. Whisky dull.

Stocks better, moderately active. Gold 43½. Reading 1.04¼; Erie 96½. Groceries quiet.

NEW YORK, June 24.

The Baltimore American of Tuesday says the rebels were driven out of Frederick by a detachment of the regular cavalry from Washington, after a brief skirmish in the streets, and pursued them until they crossed South Mountain. Recruits gathered by the rebels were left behind in a panic.

Information from Maryland Heights say that the rebels are in small force in the mountains, but have made no attempt to advance on the post.

Harper's Ferry is still nominally in our possession. The bridge is fully protected. The nearest rebel force is at Little Antietam.

The American also says we have information, this morning, that the whole line of the Potomac on the Virginia side of the river up to and beyond Leesburg, was, yesterday, in possession of the federals.

NEW YORK VERSUS PENNSYLVANIA.—The contrast between New York trained bands and Pennsylvania's raw militia is so striking that it fails to excite any other remark than that of the most indignant character. The poor yeoman from Berks and Lancaster looks on in astonishment at the drill of the 71st, and finds vent to his admiration in the very expressive but characteristic exclamation of the country, "Oh, my!" If this raid has done nothing else, it has shown the superiority as well as the wisdom of New York in having such excellently well drilled bands of defenders. The legislature of Pennsylvania will be told at their next meeting some very wholesome truths. But the governor will do it, and "do it well;" and it is to be hoped the militia laws here will either be repealed or re-enacted.

AN INCIDENT.—The Indianapolis Journal tells the following good story of Peter Apple:

"The following incident has been related to us and is vouched for by our informant: Peter Apple, of Oakland, in this county, was lately recruited for the 11th Indiana, and took part in the attempt to storm one of the Vicksburg batteries. The rebel fire was so destructive that our army recoiled. Apple, the "raw recruit," "didn't see" the backward movement and kept going ahead until he came right up to one of the rebel guns, caught a gunner by the collar, and brought him within our lines, saying: "Boys, why didn't you come on. Every fellow might have got one." We have heard of no more daring act of bravery than this little incident since the war began."

The Only Topic Now--Another Uprising--Good from New York and New Jersey--Pirates at Hand--Negroes in Demand.

PHILADELPHIA, Wednesday, June 17.

The rebel raid into Pennsylvania may do immense evil to mere material interests, but in a moral and national aspect it will be productive of more than corresponding good. We needed a new plague, a new calamity, to wake us up. We had become listless and lethargic. But all is alarm and furor now, touched in some quarters with a dash of panic. Fugitive families of women and children are arriving here from interior towns about to be occupied by the rebels, leaving, in the panic of the moment, all their precious moveables behind. As I do not share any portion of the prevailing alarm, the necessity of this higera is not so apparent to my mind. But many men, many minds. As to this city, notwithstading all the inflammatory appeals from all organs to all classes, we are simply aroused, not alarmed. The rally of men and arms has been most enthusiastic. The concentration of military force has been prodigious, and Harrisburg and the Susquehanna are now safe. Towns may be burned, populations may be scattered, landscapes may be laid waste, but the nation itself has been thoroughly aroused, and this concentration and arousal, if not blunderingly frittered away, ought to yield memorable results.

The rush to arms has equaled anything we have yet seen here. Gov. Curtin declared that "Philadelphia had not responded," but this was written while we were yet staggering under the shock of the first news of our border being crossed. We presently recovered, and found that we were not yet hurt. The Governor has also ascertained it by this time. The tender of a million by our banks was instantaneous. Now, in three days time, the creative power, latent in this state and its immediate neighbors, is seen to be almost incredible. The plain fact is that the north has not yet exhausted even a fraction of its enormous surplus.

We are gratified beyond measure at the whole souled promptitude of New York. What Gov. Seymour has done to aid the good work has been a surprise as well as a gratification. We did not expect as much at his hands. Your 7th regiment has played a most important and useful part, and is entitled to the lasting gratitude of all Pennsylvania. In New Jersey, Gov. Parker has surprised us in the same way. On Tuesday he addressed one of the returned regiments in very appropriate terms. He told them that if New Jersey was anywhere to be defended, it was on Pennsylvania soil—that one veteran among them was equal to a dozen raw recruits, and urged them to again march for the defense of their firesides. This appeal was made in response to a dispatch from Gov. Curtin that he would urge these returned men to fly to Harrisburg. The Colonel of the regiment then addressed his men, said that he was ready to go, and desired to know how many would follow. But he would begin with the officers. Every one of them came forward and were ready. The men were then dismissed to canvass their companies.

The 23d regiment, Col. Grubb, already musters 400 men to go. In private circles, men are leaving all parts of New Jersey to enroll themselves here. At Camden, Mr. James M. Scovell publishes a call for 100 men, offering to either lead or follow them. Meantime the copperheads proper, the peace-at-any-price men, are dumb and slinking. They fear the advent of their own friends. They give no sympathetic word to the new-uprising, but smirk and smile over each dispatch announcing the rebel advance. Verily there must or ought to be a day of vengeance for these traitors.

We may hope that others of their kindred, in the enemy's track, may experience a taste of this peace they have so clamored of the enemy to give them. The contrast between such as they will get, and such as the federal government has thus far secured to them, may be utterly ruinous, but then it will be instructive.

Pirates are off Cape Helopen! I think a dash up and into New York harbor would do the country good. Somebody needs waking up. It is clear that the corsairs are increasing on the ocean. Well, these things must have an end, but what we now see appears to be only the beginning. We of Philadelphia have had our invasion panic. Now let New York behold the Alabama steaming up the Narrows and dropping shells in Broadway, and all Wall street is proverbially a live place, but a little interlude of this kind would prove that a waking up to other things than Harlem or Central could be effected even there.

Though things are now so rampant all around us, yet tones must be kept subdued. The pen must not reflect the convictions of the mind. We may think, but we must be cautious as to what we write. There is an evident public constraint, not among the disloyal, but the loyal.

By the way, among the surprises of the week is Simon Cameron's denunciation of the cabinet, and the fresh upheaval of Gen. McClellan's name to command the troops now raising to drive back the rebels! Was ever farce so broad as this!

The flurry in Pennsylvania will lead to one good result, the cultivation of black men. One would think that even copperheads could now see that 10,000 colored soldiers would be good ball stoppers in and about Chambersburg. They might have been had long, long ago, but my people would not, and now, since the poor but brave fellows have been so persistently snubbed by epaulettes and shoulder-straps, the doubt is whether they can be had at all. But everything has its compensations.—Since we are compelled to live, we may be permitted at least to hope.

Cooper, hospital steward, who has been unfit for duty since the regiment left Danville, Ky., also remains behind.

☞ The copperhead state convention which recently assembled at Springfield, Illinois, put the following traitorous sentiment into their platform: "THAT THE FURTHER OFFENSIVE PROSECUTION OF THIS WAR TENDS TO SUBVERT THE CONSTITUTION AND GOVERNMENT."

Western Virginia, which the President in his proclamation of April 20th, announced would become a member of the Union at the expiration of sixty days, reached the end of that period on Saturday. The following are the officers of the new state:—Governor, A. I Boreman; Secretary of State, J. E. Boyer; Treasurer, Campbell Tarr; Auditor, Samuel Crane; Attorney General, A. B. Caldwell.

A prominent speaker at a copperhead gathering in Ohio, said that he expected to "spend an eternity in company with democrats." A republican listener responded, that he "probably would unless he repented of his sins!"

Chicago Market.

OFFICE OF THE CHICAGO EVENING JOURNAL, TUESDAY, June 23—3 p. m.

There is an active demand for eastern exchange, and the selling rates at the banks rule firm at ⅛a¼ per cent premium—the inside quotation for round sums.

The demand for money is less active, and the supply accumulating. Rates of interest are still quoted at 8a 10 per cent per annum.

Gold is comparatively steady, and notwithstanding rebel raids and reports, there are none of those violent fluctuations which we formerly had. The market to-day is quoted at 143¼, which is a decline of ½ per cent on yesterday's ruling rate. Here there is little or none offered for sale, and the buying rate is nominally quoted at 142½. Silver is quiet and steady at 130a133 for small and large coins.

There was an easier feeling in the wheat market today, owing to the advance in freights, and prices receded ½a1c per bushel, sales being made at $1,08a1,09 for No 1 spring and No 2 red, 90a94c for No 2 spring and 75a77c for rejected spring. The flour market continues dull and depressed, there being no inquiry for shipment.

Corn was firmer and active, notwithstanding the advance in freights. Mixed in store sold liberally at the opening at 47½c, but after the New York news was received buyers were less anxious, and sales were made at 47½c. Canal corn afloat was quiet at 49½a49¾c for mixed.

There was a fair inquiry for oats and the market ruled steady at 57¼a58c for No 1 in store.

Rye was in limited request and quiet at 67½c. Barley dull. Highwines firm at 41a41½c. Provisions inactive. Nothing doing in live stock—quotations unchanged. Groceries firm and steady. Oils more active and a shade better on both carbon and linseed. Bagging dull and drooping. Lumber firm and steady. Butter in fair shipping demand at 12a13c for good grades of firkin. Wool quiet at 50a55c for medium to good grades of washed. Lake freights firm and ½c higher, with engagements at 8c for corn and 7c for oats to Buffalo.

Wool Items.

PHILADELPHIA, June 20.—The unsettled condition of the market, recorded for some weeks past, still continues. Sales of 80,000 lbs old clip, medium and fine, at 68a72c cash.

BOSTON, June 19.—About 200,000 lbs have been sold, at 62½a70c, according to quality.

PROVIDENCE, June 19.—Sales of upwards of 20,000 lbs have been made during the past week at 70a75c.

BALTIMORE, June 19.—Prices are easier—ranging from 5aa65c.

DETROIT, June 22.—The sales for the past week have amounted, in small lots to about 1,000 lbs, at 50a53c, the wool being mostly coarse.

ANN ARBOR.—Wool refuses to come forward at prices offered, and but very few fleeces have yet appeared in this market, not enough to enable us to make quotations. Sixty cents is the highest our buyers are authorized to offer, and at these figures growers will hold their fleeces, thinking the prices do not correspond with the manufactured goods, etc. This is right. There is no reason why the wool clip should all be sold in a fortnight or month any more than any other great staple.—Argus.

UPWARDS of the above number of this wonderful stove are now in use throughout the country. Eighteen years of increasing favor lead the proprietor, P. P. Stewart, to hope at no distant day to have the true "Benefactor of the Household" in universal use. The improvements of 1859 make it the

in the world. The only cook stove having a full double set of flues, inlaid with heat retaining substances which enables the user to bake a full batch in the fire chamber. The only perfect Air-Tight cook stove manufactured. The only cook stove in use that will save its cost in three years in fuel. No waste of heat; no waste of fuel; perfectly air-tight; will retain fire in the chamber for twelve hours without adding fuel.

After the Fire is Entirely Extinguished

DR. SWEET'S

Infallible Liniment,

GREAT EXTERNAL REMEDY,

FOR RHEUMATISM, GOUT, NEURALGIA, LUMBAGO, STIFF NECK AND JOINTS, SPRAINS, BRUISES, CUTS AND WOUNDS, PILES, HEADACHE, AND ALL RHEUMATIC AND NERVOUS DISORDERS.

For all which it is a speedy and certain remedy, and never fails. The Liniment is prepared from the recipe of Dr. Stephen Sweet, of Connecticut, the famous bone setter, and has been used in his practice for more than twenty years with the most astonishing success.

AS AN ALLEVIATOR OF PAIN, it is unrivaled by any preparation before the public, of which the most skeptical may be convinced by a single trial.

This Liniment will cure rapidly and radically, RHEUMATIC DISORDERS of every kind, and in thousands of cases where it has been used it has never been known to fail.

FOR NEURALGIA, it will afford immediate relief in every case, however distressing.

It will relieve the worst cases of HEADACHE in three minutes and is warranted to do it.

TOOTHACHE also will it cure instantly.

FOR NERVOUS DEBILITY AND GENERAL LASSITUDE arising from imprudence or excess, this Liniment is a most happy and unfailing remedy. Acting directly upon the nervous tissues, it strengthens and revivifies the system, and restores it to elasticity and vigor.

FOR PILES.—As an external remedy, we claim that it is the best known, and we challenge the world to produce an equal. Every victim of this distressing complaint should give it a trial, for it will not fail to afford immediate relief, and in a majority of cases will effect a radical cure.

QUINSEY AND SORE THROAT are sometimes extremely malignant and dangerous, but a timely application of this Liniment will never fail to cure.

SPRAINS are sometimes very obstinate, and enlargement of the joints is liable to occur if neglected. The worst case may be conquered by this Liniment in two or three days.

BRUISES, CUTS, WOUNDS, SORES, ULCERS, BURNS AND SCALDS, yield readily to the wonderful healing properties of DR. SWEET'S INFALLIBLE LINIMENT, when used according to directions. Also, CHILBLAINS, FROSTED FEET, AND INSECT BITES AND STINGS.

Every Horse Owner

should have this remedy at hand, for its timely use at the first appearance of Lameness will effectually prevent those formidable diseases, to which all horses are liable, and which render so many otherwise valuable horses nearly worthless.

Over four hundred voluntary testimonials to the wonderful curative properties of this Liniment have been received within the last two years, and many of them from persons in the highest ranks of life.

CAUTION.

To avoid imposition, observe the Signature and Likeness of Dr. Stephen Sweet on every label, and also "Stephen Sweet's Infallible Liniment" blown in the glass of each bottle, without which none are genuine.

GREAT REDUCTION

—IN—

The Prices

—OF—

SINGER & CO.'S

STANDARD MACHINES

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $70.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented, FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

LEATHER WORK,

In Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

☞ Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

☞ All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis

I. M. SINGER & CO.'s GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.
